Information & commitments

1. All activities during the Weekend des Grand Crus (tasting, dinner, soirée, tour, open day, golf) are exclusively reserved for people over 18, ID may be requested at the entrance.
2. In this type of event, tasting wine does not mean drinking it: spittoons are available in the tasting room. We advise you to use them systematically if you wish to enjoy the full range of wines offered for tasting.
3. It is up to each person to adapt their alcohol consumption according to their physiology and any current medical issues or medication. We remind you that pregnant women are strongly advised not to consume alcohol and that, in general, alcohol abuse is hazardous to health.
4. If you think you have exceeded the alcohol limit for driving a vehicle at the end of the tasting, (at the time of printing defined in France as a concentration of 0.25 milligrams alcohol per litre or above in exhaled air), please ask a member of our reception staff for a breathalyzer, which will be distributed free of charge. We will also be happy to call a taxi for you, at your own expense.
5. Cancellation fees. Between 14 and 8 days before the event: 50% of the total amount. Under 7 days: 100% of the total amount.
6. The bus tours on Sunday May 18th are organized by VITIVINITOUR SARL S.E.E., travel agency license N° IM033110010.
7. Any person attending this event authorises the UGCB to use free of charge images on which they may appear and which were taken by any means during the Week-end des Grands Crus, in any format and on any media. This right is transferable and valid throughout the world for the period of time of the protection of the relevant rights, for promotion purposes and/or representation.
