

19/20

Le Figaro Vin

95-96/100

James Suckling

94-97/100

Antonio Galloni

94-96/100

Wine Enthusiast

“ Vin frais, fruité, racé, tendu, très beau toucher de bouche, tannins soyeux et fondus, très grande longueur, vin pur et précis. ”

“ This is a dense and layered red with blackberries, blueberries and hints of hazelnuts. (...) Very pretty to taste. Juicy and delicious. 43% merlot, 47% cabernet sauvignon and 10% cabernet franc. (...) ”

“ The 2017 Figeac is magnificent. Beautifully layered and exquisite in the glass, the 2017 possesses remarkable balance and harmony from the very first taste. An utterly beguiling, captivating wine, the 2017 simply has it all. (...) Figeac is a wine of total harmony. (...) ”

“ Barrel Sample. (...) It is always going to be a rich wine, with plenty of bright acidity. For this estate, it will not be a wine for long-term aging. ”

93-95/100

Neal Martin

“ (...) This is unapologetically classic in style and whilst it might be over-shadowed by the sensational 2015 and 2016 Figeac, this is an impressive follow-up to that might pair that has really put Figeac back on the map. ”

93/100

Jane Anson

“ The aromatics here are highly appealing, the well-weighted cassis fruit with touches of woodsmoke scents reflecting the clean black fruits on the attack, delivered with a sense of precision. The fruit is a little below the exceptional quality of the last few years, but 2015 and 2016 were just such sensational wines here, and this was a far trickier vintage. (...) ”

92-95/100

Wine Spectator

“ Bright and fresh, offering lovely cassis and black cherry notes sitting atop a sleek iron spine. Floral and savory details run throughout. Shows a refined structure. Sneakily long, with persistent fruit. ”

