HISTORY

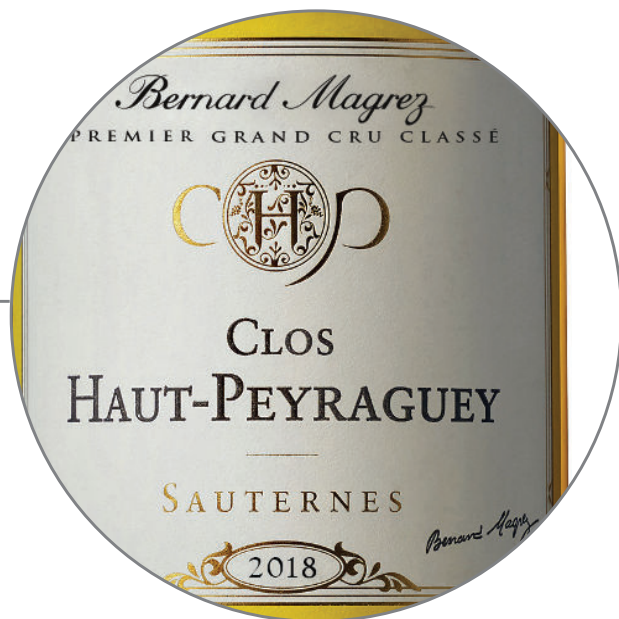

A Sauternes First Classed Growth in 1855, Clos Haut-Peyraguey nestles on the highest point of the hill of Bommès, overhanging the vineyards of its prestigious appellation.

Its exceptional terroir and its unique exposition make Clos Haut-Peyraguey a wine of great subtlety, a nectar of lightness and refinement.

Since 1618, the date of the first harvest at this ancient barony, Clos Haut-Peyraguey has charmed lovers of very great wines, always able to recognise its exceptional nectars of singular elegance.

TASTING NOTES

JAMES SUCKLING 91 - 92

This shows a gold color with lots of dried-pineapple and honey character. Full bodied, dense and fruity. Already delicious.

MARKUS DEL MONEGO 92

Intense yellow colour with amber hue. Restrained fruit, typical botrytis character. On the palate rich with opulent sweetness and good length.
