Vintage description :

A veritable vintage of extremes, the weather throughout 2018 resulted in perfect maturity for each plot, and revealed wines with both superb structure and great aromatic potential. If its solar side gives it a slight "southern accent", this vintage remains above all synonymous with elegance and balance. The vine prevailed once again, showing us the magic of Bordeaux...

The 2018 vintage displays the strength of the 2016 and the elegance of the 2010.
