WINE ENTHUSIAST ROGER VOSS

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Red Pessac-Léognan red 2017 Score : 91-93

This is a dark, smoky wine, packed with dark berry notes, this is rich and full. Its tannins are powerful and will need taming. Drink from 2024.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Pessac-Léognan red 2017 Score : 92

This is one of the more finessed and well expressed examples of powerful cassis and blackberry fruits in 2017. I love the sense of energy and juice that sits beneath the fruit – again, not something that you are seeing everywhere. A good job for Olivier, even if it hasn't quite reached the heights of 2015 and 2016. Very satisfying, and should develop nicely over next few years.

This is very well done for the vintage with a delightful core of firm yet inviting tannins, plenty of fresh acidity and a taut finish.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Rouge 2017 Score : 16,5/17

On aime la grande minéralité et la précision du fruit, la bouche très harmonieuse, serrée et savoureuse, avec un bon grain, du fruit et de la fraîcheur. Raffiné.

Le Château a privilégié les cabernets pour l'assemblage final du grand vin. On retrouvera donc un Olivier de style racé, précis et joliment raffiné, avec une belle qualité de tanins et une bouche au fruité net et acidulé.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Pessac-Léognan White 2017 Score : 91-94

Enticing, with racing tarragon, thyme and lemon peel notes backed by hints of plumb white peach and yellow apple. This should be a winner when it knits from élevage.

WINE ENTHUSIAST - ROGER VOSS

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Pessac-Léognan White 2017 Score : 93-95

Barrel Sample. Intensely herbal, this is a concentrated, green wine. Its texture and richness come from grassy Sauvignon Blanc. It should calm down and develop slowly, so hold until 2023.

DECANTER – Jane ANSON

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Pessac-Léognan White 2017 Score : 95 Top Scorer

Gentle minerality on the nose delivers a gorgeous white peach character that slowly builds. It effortlessly replaces one sensation with the next, just building ever a slowly in power and juice, and pulsates through. Those aromatics are a little subtle at first, but it doesn't take long in the glass for them to come out: sage and soft white flowers, then a slam of citrus and luscious nectarine. One of the whites of the vintage.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER White Pessac-Léognan 2017 Score : 92-93

This young white shows a wonderful finish. Ripe apples, lemons and some tropical fruits. Full-bodied, dense and layered. A line of vivid acidity runs through the center palate. Very nicely crated.

Vraiment raffiné. Arômes d'agrumes, pêche de vigne, minéralité cristalline, bouche vraiment dense, très aromatique, dotée d'une vivacité et d'une énergie incroyables. Belle réussite.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Blanc 2017

Score : 90-92

The 2017 Olivier Blanc is terrific. Green orchard fruit, mint, sage and tomato leaf are all given an extra kick of energy from the freshness of the vintage. The 2017 finishes with striking tension and salinity that merely add to its considerable appeal. What a gorgeous wine this is.
