CHÂTEAU PAPE CLÉMENT

GRAND CRU CLASSÉ DE GRAVES

HISTORY

More than just a benchmark, it is an icon. Since 1252, the vineyard of Château Pape Clément has been situated on the same great and exceptional terroir, giving it elegance and complexity. The property of an archbishop of Bordeaux who became Pope in 1305, the vines of Château Pape Clément are subject to constant attention so as to guarantee an exceptional nectar, vintage after vintage. The richness of its terroir, associated with the ancestral know-how inherited from a long tradition of excellence in the vineyard and the application of scrupulous and delicate winemaking make Château Pape Clément an exceptional wine, chosen by connoisseurs of very great wines.

TASTING NOTES

JAMES SUCKLING 97 - 98

This is a very driven Pape Clément with fantastic density and finesse at the same time. Linear and driven, the finish goes on for minutes with incredible tension and focus. More cabernet. Refinement with power.

CHATEAU PAPE CLÉMENT
Première vendange en 1252

Planté au XIIIème siècle, le vignoble est devenu la propriété de Bertrand de Got, archevêque de Bordeaux. Élu premier Pape d'Avignon en 1305 sous le nom de Clément V, il conserve le domaine et le baptise «Pape Clément».

Ce terroir aux composantes exceptionnelles produit depuis sept siècles des vins appréciés pour leur élégance et leur complexité. Ils sont aujourd'hui présents sur les plus grandes tables du monde. En 2018, la vendange a débuté le 30 Septembre.

The vineyard was planted in the 13th century. It became the property of Bertrand de Got, the archbishop of Bordeaux. Appointed first Pope of Avignon in 1305 under the name of Clement V, he kept the estate and named it «Pape Clément». For over seven centuries, this terroir with exceptional qualities has been producing wines that are appreciated for their elegance and complexity. They are served in the world's best restaurants. The harvest began on September 30th, 2018.
