

Millésime 2016 / 2016 vintage

“Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2016 Pavie Macquin charges out of the glass with gregarious black cherries, warm blackberries and wild blueberries scents followed up by loads of red roses, baking spices, cedar chest and unsmoked cigars sparks plus a waft of wild thyme. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is an exercise in poise, revealing layer upon layer of cherries and berries flavors and tons of savory nuances, framed by firm yet exquisitely ripe tannins, finishing very long.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Décembre 2018

Score: 96/100

“A wine of total finesse, the 2016 Pavie Macquin is also one of the most riveting wines of the vintage. Silky and supple on the palate, with no hard edges and exceptional balance, it takes over all the senses and never lets up. The flavors are bright, precise and beautifully nuanced. Above all else, Pavie Macquin is a wine of elegance, and that is exactly what comes through in the 2016. The wine plays in the dimensions of bright, floral-infused, red-toned fruits, silky tannins and length more than pure power or breadth. The 2016 is a stunningly beautiful bottle of wine and one of the finest reds of the year – it’s as simple as that. In 2016, Nicolas Thienpont opted for long macerations of around four weeks in a combination of cement and oak. Tasted three times.”

“This is a really fantastic PM! The licorice, fresh mushroom, sous bois and stone character is so exciting. It’s full and very layered with exceptional depth and length. Compressed and focused. Pure silk.”

James Suckling, Avril 2017

Score : 97-98 / 100

“Juicy and alluring, with dark fig, cherry and currant fruit that has melded together, while lively minerality and anise notes course underneath. The long, refined finish has a gorgeous yin-yang between cashmere and chalky threads.”

James Molesworth, Wine Spectator, Avril 2017

Score: 94-97 / 100

“Barrel Sample. Fragrant, perfumed and juicy, this is already an attractive wine, though one that has the stuffing to cellar well for many years. The structure is striking and solidly firm. It will be an elegant wine with opulent tendencies.”

Roger Voss, Wine Enthusiast, Avril 2017

Score : 95-97 / 100

“I appreciate the intensity of this Pavie-Macquin. This is no shy retiring flower but comes out with cylinders pumping while maintaining the delineation, the detail that you look for. The palate is smooth and sensual on the entry, velvety in texture with plenty of luscious red berry fruit, vanilla and a hint of blueberry. It glides across the palate, the new oak neatly integrated. This is easily my pick of Nicolas Thienpont’s 2016s and one of the best Pavie-Macquins that I have tasted at this stage.”

"You have to like your grapes poured over a rock quarry to get this wine, but I love it. The color of Homer's wine dark sea with levels of extract that coat your palate, teeth and gums. There is something special here you can easily sense, with crushed velvet textures and the perfect combination of decadence and refined elegance. Even though this is incredibly powerful, everything is in harmony. The pure fruits linger, build and expand; this is a unique textural experience. The wine was produced from blending 82% Merlot, 16% Cabernet Franc and 2% Cabernet Sauvignon. The Merlot was harvested October 7 to October 21, the Cabernet Franc, October 17 to October 20 and the Cabernet Sauvignon on October 20. The wine reached 14.4% alcohol with a pH of 3.35."

Score : 98-100 / 100

"Very dark. Pretty thick and ripe on the nose (2% Cabernet Sauvignon). Balsamic de Modena character! Just a bit much for me but I have to admire it. Big and beefy. Rather hard work. Very much sets its cap at the blockbuster lover. Well done within that framework... Marmite end. Drink 2026-2040"

"Des arômes de cerises mûres, de framboises, de léger cassis, d'épices douces, et des notes florales se révèle dans une olfaction d'une bonne intensité. L'attaque est dense et veloutée, les sensations sont ascendantes, le vin est ample et sphérique, d'une puissance très maîtrisée dans ce millésime, dans un centre bien en chair et très fruité. La belle acidité mûre inhérente à ce terroir participe à la longue finale, dynamique, très aromatique, persistante et salivante (salinité associée)."

"Tasted with Nicolas Thienpont and David Suire at the estate, for the second year running this vineyard has put in a stellar performance. The sample presented was a finished blend featuring 82% Merlot, picked October 7th, 13th, 15th, 17th, 19th, 20th and 21st, 16% Cabernet Franc, picked October 17th, 19th and 20th, and just 2% Cabernet Sauvignon, picked October 20th. The crop was 46 hl/ha from 12.5 hectares of vines in production. Analyses have given us the wine's vital statistics as 14.2% alcohol and pH 3.35. A much more creamed style to the fruit on the nose than Larcis Ducasse, tasted alongside, with perfumed essence of black cherry, very pure and defined, with a little dark currant intensity. The palate is fresh, pure, with rich dark fruits, substantial, with a gently polished weight as well as a beautifully ripe tannic backbone. This has everything, purity, an elegant but confident texture, freshness and lift, with a well-hidden tannic grip. Delicious, and it surely has super potential. This makes two great vintages in a row for Pavie-Macquin. "

"Profond et raffiné, délicat, grande expression des terroirs calcaire de Saint-Emilion,intense, allonge, subtil."

Bettane & Desseauve, Avril 2017

Score : 95-96 / 100

"The best ever. Couleur sombre, intense, belle, pourpre et violine. Nez moyennement aromatique et pour l'instant encore discret. Bouche ample à l'attaque, suave au développement, particulièrement fruitée et même complexe au milieu. Le vin puissant fond au palais et vient s'achever long, savoureux sur un corps gras, avec beaucoup de saveur. Superbe ! Degré d'alcool : 14.5° (dans la norme), pH : 3.38 (moyenne basse). Assemblage : 82 % merlot, 16 % cabernet franc, 2 % cabernet sauvignon."

Jean-Marc Quarin, Avril 2017

Score : 96 / 100

"A beautifully composed Pavie Macquin that is poetry in a bottle. There is delicacy along with intensity and depth enveloped in suave, ripe, supple tannins. Wonderful precision and detail with a very long finish."

Jeannie Cho Lee, Avril 2017

Score : 96 / 100

"The nose is fresh, fruity and offers a slight gourmandise/richness as well as a fine concentration. It reveals notes of fresh blackberry, flowers (violet, hint of iris), black cherry and a discreet touch of racy minerality (limestone/terroir) associated with slight hints of toasted oak, a very discreet hint of pepper as well as an imperceptible hint of coffee and spices. The palate is fruity, juicy, beautifully delicate/silky, precise, slightly tight, full of elegance and offers a beautiful definition, a slight tension, precision, gourmandise as well as a nice "guideline". In the mouth this wine expresses notes of fresh/ripe blackberry, fresh/ripe strawberry and hints of cassis associated with slight notes of chocolate, oak and sweet spices. Tannins are fine, ripe and wellbuilt. Good length and good persistence. A beautiful wine!"

Jonathan Choukroun, Vert de Vin, Mars 2017

Christer Byklum, B My Bordeaux, Avril 2017

"This is a Derencourt-Thienpont wine, working together as a consultancy. Deep, intense, autumnal berry fruits make for a great St-Émilion delivering huge impact. It veers towards chunky, but the tannins are not solid and there is a freshness and life to them that makes them present without being choking. Very good indeed."

Decanter, Avril 2017

Score : 94 / 100

"Davantage d'agilité et d'expressivité qu'à son habitude. Nicolas Thienpont reconnaît une vinification moins extractive, avec moins de saignées. Salinité très forte dès l'attaque, l'acidité prend le relais, tranchante, souveraine. Elle anime un fruit profond et déjà gourmand, qui semble hésiter entre la mûre et la myrtille."

Pierre Citerne, La Revue du Vin de France, Avril 2017

Score : 17-18 / 20

"Floral, myrtille, superbe nez frais. Délicatesse, subtilité, précision dans le toucher débouche avec de la fraîcheur, une puissance dans l'élégance. Déjà du satin avec des tanins d'une précision laser."

Gault & Millau, Avril 2017

“Superbe nez. Il est buriné par le terroir. Un peu strict à ce stade, mais avec une énergie et une profondeur remarquables. Grande finale avec un éclat particulier. Tanin frais, dynamique. Finale sur les baies des bois.”

Jacques Perrin, Vinifera, Avril 2017

Score : 96-98 / 100

“Beaucoup de distinction et de race d'emblée, un côté fleuri et épicé, presque oriental. La bouche est dense et soyeuse, les tanins sont d'une grande élégance, le fruit noir et net est propulsé par une belle vibration, salivante, une touche calcaire et fumée. Subtil, savoureux et délicat.”
