- Le millésime 2012 confirme cette renaissance : 90-92 WINE ADVOCATE (Robert Parker)

"Following a strong 2010, the 2012 Petit Village is impressive. Pure, ripe tapenade-tinged black currant and black cherry fruit aromas intermixed with hints of licorice and incense jump from the glass of this medium-bodied, velvety-textured, fleshy, succulent Pomerol. A note of spicy oak is well-integrated. Drink this 2012 over the next 12-15 years. This property is finally rebounding from a relatively moribund period of good but uninspiring performances."

90-93 WINE SPECTATOR (James Molesworth)

"Lush and enticing, with delicious, succulent raspberry, boysenberry and blackberry fruit inlaid with spice notes and culminating in a long, black tea-infused finish. This bottling has been quietly sneaking up the pecking order in recent vintages."

92 WINE ENTHUSIAST (Roger Voss)

91-93. "Barrel sample. A ripe and fruity wine, this exhibits an well-structured balance of acidity and sweet tannins. It has weight, richness, and a fine fruitiness."

16,5 JANCISROBINSON.COM (Julia Harding MW)

"Replanted rootstocks and vines half the vineyard. 100% Merlot from Petit Village planted 2004/5. Glowing with health. Very sweet start and lots of glossy, spicy fruit. Very vibrant."

17,25/20 - 90+/100 DECANTER (James Lawther MW)

"Lovely wine. Continues the progression. Dark/red berry fruit with a little spice and vanilla. Palate plush and seductive. Fine, long tannins."

16-17 LA REVUE DU VIN DE FRANCE (Olivier Poels)

Grandes réussites "...Petit-Village progresse depuis quelques années et gagne en définition. Une belle réussite."
