POMEROL

The rebirth of one of the Pomerol jewels

- 10 hectares in the heart of the Pomerol plateau.
- An extensive program of renovation and qualitative improvement in recent years with 50% of the vines replanted.
- Construction of vat-house and winery buildings in 2006.
- The world's greatest wine-tasters have acknowledged and confirmed the rebirth of Petit-Village.

Average scores press for Château Petit-Village
(based on the scores from the 8 main tasters)

The 2012 vintage confirms this renewal :

90-92 WINE ADVOCATE (Robert Parker)

"Following a strong 2010, the 2012 Petit Village is impressive. Pure, ripe tapenade-tinged black currant and black cherry fruit aromas intermixed with hints of licorice and incense jump from the glass of this medium-bodied, velvety-textured, fleshy, succulent Pomerol. A note of spicy oak is well-integrated. Drink this 2012 over the next 12-15 years. This property is finally rebounding from a relatively moribund period of good but uninspiring performances."

90-93 WINE SPECTATOR (James Molesworth)

"Lush and enticing, with delicious, succulent raspberry, boysenberry and blackberry fruit inlaid with spice notes and culminating in a long, black tea-infused finish. This bottling has been quietly sneaking up the pecking order in recent vintages."

92 WINE ENTHUSIAST (Roger Voss)

91-93. "Barrel sample. A ripe and fruity wine, this exhibits a well-structured balance of acidity and sweet tannins. It has weight, richness, and a fine fruitiness."

16,5 JANCISROBINSON.COM (Julia Harding MW)

"Replanted rootstocks and vines half the vineyard. 100% Merlot from Petit Village planted 2004/5. Glowing with health. Very sweet start and lots of glossy, spicy fruit. Very vibrant."

17,25/20 - 90+/100 DECANTER (James Lawther MW)

"Lovely wine. Continues the progression. Dark/red berry fruit with a little spice and vanilla..."

17,5 MATTHEW JUKES

93-94 JAMES SUCKLING

"A pretty wine with beautiful tannins and a solid core of fruit. It's full-bodied, with gorgeous length and flavor. One of the best in years. Juicy and long."
