

Château Pichon-Longueville 2012 :

92-93

Jamessuckling.com

James Suckling

This wine builds on the palate with pretty currants and berries. Full body, with a tender core of fruit and a tannins structure that builds on the palate. It is precise and fresh. Creamy fruit and ripe tannins.

91-94

Wine Spectator

James Molesworth

April 5, 2013

44 Top-Scoring 2012 Red Bordeaux

Features a bright, lively, leafy edge, with cassis bush and tobacco framing the slightly tangy core of red currant and black cherry, showing a solid note of iron. Cuts a distinctive profile, displaying sappy intensity through the finish. —J.M.