

VINTAGE 2022

Château Brane-Cantenac

WINE CRITICS REVIEW.

Henri Lurton

30 years ago, I succeeded my father and had my brother and sister by my side. My father had taken over the property from his father François and his grandfather Léonce Récapet.

My parents arrived in Brane-Cantenac in 1954. The chateau was their home until their passing, and where their eleven children were born. My father was the last to leave, on March 25th, 2023.

He missed celebrating his centennial with us by only two short years, which would have also marked the centennial of Brane-Cantenac in our family.

Nonetheless, he had the joy of seeing just a few months ago the 5th generation, my four children Vincent, Nicolas, Madeleine and Xavier become the new owners.

Today, I can only dedicate Brane-Cantenac 2022 to him, my greatest vintage... but not the last ...!

My father was one of the great winemakers in his generation and had a particular responsibility for this wine due to the 60 years old cabernet sauvignon vines he planted after the great frost of 1956.

These wines, which I have carefully preserved through proper pruning, form the backbone of Brane-Cantenac 2022.
