Château Ducru-Beaucaillou
2012

« Les vins de Ducru-Beaucaillou sont très prisés par les amateurs du monde entier pour leur grand classicisme. Discrets et élégants, à la fois soyeux et séveux, ils offrent un fruit éclatant, des tanins infiniment fins et d'une grande fraîcheur. Leur potentiel de garde est immense. »

“How on earth can a Grand Vin of Bordeaux, with 91% Cabernet Sauvignon, have the poise, grace, sheer elegance and sophistication of one of the finest Grand Cru Burgundies? This 2012 Ch. Ducru-Beaucaillou certainly does.”

« Ducru-Beaucaillou, which released at €69.6 p/b...is comfortably cheaper than its back vintages. »

“First the sharp Left: the beautiful Ducru Beaucaillou is now available at £765. This was a definite highlight of the Medoc and among our favourite wines of the vintage - and it's now the cheapest Ducru on the market.”

“We loved it for its blend of concentration and restraint; it's a buy at this price.”

“Sumptuous and deliciously smooth on the palate. Bruno Borie describes the wine as “slinky”. There is fresh acidity, spice and minerals and a long, precise finish.”

“Very classy indeed and touching first growth quality.”

21 May 2013 - Some J&B favourites

“... power, finesse, elegance, a very suave mid palate, ample concentration, and all the credentials in place for it to age gracefully for many years...for us it ranks as one of the strongest efforts from this exceptional estate...”
