

Château Clément Pichon 2010

Haut Médoc Cru Bourgeois – OWC x 12 Bottles

Located at the entry door of Haut Médoc, the story of Ch. Clément Pichon began in the 14th century and became of the most famous building of the area. Clément Fayat ( Ch. La Dominique in Saint Emilion, Ch. Fayat in Pomerol), who bought the estate in 1976, has now decided that the property has to be recognized, not only as a jewel of architecture but as one of the cutting edge property of the Left Bank. Thus 25 hectares has been replanted since his arrival and all the best practices have been implemented, under the direction of Yannick Evenou, advised by Michel Rolland. It is now the leading Cru Bourgeois in its category

Why buy this wine?

- The leader of the Haut Medoc Cru Bourgeois in a fantastic vintage
- A magical name, a powerful brand
- A dynamic management, increasing the quality every year
- Advised by the renowned oenologist Michel Rolland

Journalists Reviews

- Wine Spectator: 90 pts
- Wine Advocate: 89 pts
- René Gabriel: 16/20
- James Suckling: 91/100
- Decanter World Wine Award Bronze Medail

Technical notes

Surface: 25 ha (60 acres)

Yields: 45hl/ha

Density of the Viineyard: 6900vines/ha

Average age of the vineyard: 30 years

Soil: Large Gravel over Iron sub Layer

Grape varieties: 62% Cabernet Sauvignon
33% Merlot 5% Cabernet Franc

Quality criteria's:

Natural Grass Growing every 2 raws,
Thermo-regulated vats for plot vinification, Slow maceration, Ageing in Oak Barrels (50% new )

Ageing potential: 10 years

Temperature: 18°C