

CARRUADES 2025, THE WINNING COMBINATION

We have been betting on our young vines for a few years now. Well planted, they are now coming into their own earlier and often have a dose of beginners luck.

In 2025, we were right to pick their numbers on the grid: Caberne-Sauvignon with an almost paradoxical freshness, Cabernet franc (admittedly few at this stage) that reveal their promising terroirs, and Merlot plots that are sometimes take longer to mature than the other grape varieties.

Their combined strength and vigour gives us the winning formula for Carruades ! Bingo.
