

CHÂTEAU CLÉMENT-PICHON

CRU BOURGEOIS
HAUT-MÉDOC

Located on the outskirts of Bordeaux, in the village of Parempeyre, Clément-Pichon's history dates back to the XIVth century. In 1881, following a fire, the estate is rebuilt by the Duran-Dassier family. It is the architect Michel Louis Garros, who builds the Renaissance inspired residence.

The estate is acquired by Clément Fayat in 1976. He completely recreated the 25 hectare vineyard, giving it back its prestige. In memory of the heiress family, the estate was renamed Château Clément Pichon in 1985.
