Château Olivier Rouge 2018

THE WINE ADVOCATE – Lisa Perrotti-Brown

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Pessac-Léognan red 2018

Score : 92-94

Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2018 Olivier has a wonderful fragrant nose of black cherries, black raspberries, fresh black currants and kirsch with suggestions of lilacs, cinnamon stick, cloves and camphor.

Full bodied, the palate is beautifully poised with loads of crunchy, bright, energetic fruit and a firm, finely grained texture with loads of freshness and a long, perfumed finish. Stunning !

Quite ripe but well focused, with tarry edges harnessing the currant and blackberry paste flavors. Licorice and applewood notes frame the finish . – J.M.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Red Pessac-Léognan red 2018

Score : 95

This is a firmly structured wine with powerful tannins that contrast with the intense acidity, and ripe black currant flavor. It has a smoky edge and a hint of pepper. The future is good for this wine.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Pessac-Léognan red 2018

Score : 94

This has lovely deep, rich fruit flavours and a good violet-coloured rim. On the palate there is depth and intensity, with a silky texture and firm tannins. It's architectural in style, with a lovely menthol finish similar to the 2010 and the 2016. I tasted this a few times and it showed very well on each occasion. It closes in on the finish, boding well for its ageability. A discrete but extremely good quality wine to watch. 30% new oak. 40hl/ha yield. Drinking Window 2026 - 2042

Score : 16

Nez puissant et fondu, exprimant un fruit tout en délicatesse et beaucoup de minéralité, très belle bouche qui allie volume et énergie, fraîcheur et équilibre. Du potentiel, pas tape-à-l'œil, une très grande harmonie.

Score : 16,5-17/20

Ce rouge affiche une puissance peu commune. Riche, mûr, plein et chaleureux, il explose mais s'équilibre. Un vin au profil exotique et à la finale chaude.

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Blanc 2018 Score : 92-94

The 2018 Olivier white is a little reticent to begin, opening to give motions of fresh limes, lemon peel, white grapefruit and wet slate with a touch of coriander seeds . Medium-bodied the palate is tight, with great tension and loads of citrusy layers , finishing long and minerally.

Barrel Sample. The wine is textured and tight, hinting of steeliness and showing a salty character that contrasts with the lemon flavor. These tones are joined by tropical elements, giving a ripe, fruity finish.

Nez finement fruité et floral, bouche ronde, charnue, très aromatique et dotée d'une vivacité superbe. Très fringant

CHÂTEAU OLIVIER Pessac-Léognan White 2018 Score : 93 Top Scorer

Olivier comes close to delivering the kick that's missing in many of the Pessac whites this year. It's a juicy, rich, well structured wine that maintains its freshness. I tasted this a few times and it definitely delivers the slate crawl towards the finish that slows down your experience and makes a great white stretch out. 45hl/ha yield. 30% new oak for ageing.
