

Château Puygueraud

FRANCS - CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

[le rouge]

- 92-93/100 “Full of blackberry, black-olive and chocolate aromas and flavors on a medium to full body with lightly chewy tannins.”
James Suckling, JamesSuckling.com, avril 2024
- 91-93/100 “Château Puygueraud is one of Bordeaux’s most cost-effective wines, performing consistently well regardless of the vintage. Once again, the 2023 vintage persuades my palate with its sweet palate and savory finish. The fragrant maturity of strawberries, cherries, and sour plums is refreshing, with lively hints of cinnamon and cloves. Round yet slightly firm, calm yet playful, this charming wine is irresistible.”

- 90-91/100 « Une jolie couleur violette, juvénile, un grain fougueux, un joli vin à l’attaque tendre et à la fermeté tannique. Bien défini. »
Alexis Goujard, La Revue du Vin de France, avril 2024
- 91-93/100 “[...] A beautifully expressive character on the nose, with rich fruit, with blackberries, rose petals and dark chocolate. Supple and polished at the start of the palate, with a good midpalate confidence, allowing a little grain of limestone tannins to show though, adding interest, while the fruit remains dark and toasted. A good grip to the finish, with substance and good coherence. A very smart Puygueraud this year, which should drink well five-plus years from now. The alcohol is 14.4% on analysis.”
Chris Kissack, Wine Doctor, avril 2024
- 89/100 “Always a consistently impressive wine, carefully constructed, has ambition and clear tannic architecture, and so potential for ageing, highly spiced with ripe red fruits - feels more of a hot vintage than on the Left Bank. 30% new barrels. Harvest September 13 to 26. Interesting political background in France this year, with them wanting to leave the Cotes to form their own appellation. Thienpont family estate and family home. Tasted twice. 23h/h yield.”
Jane Anson, Inside Bordeaux, mai 2024
- 90/100 “Dark purple colour with violet hue and almost black core. Rich nose with hints of dark chocolate. Ripe berry fruit, black cherries and floral hints in the background. On the palate very juicy character with very good length and sweet fruit in the finish.”
