

La Fleur Corbin 2014

Montagne Saint-Emilion

The plots of La Fleur Corbin are located in the township of Montagne Saint-Emilion, satellite appellation of Saint-Emilion. The vineyard belongs to the Cru Classé of Saint-Emilion: Grand Corbin Despagne. The DESPAGNE family, owner of the estate, is present in Saint-Emilion since the 16th century. It is Louis DESPAGNE that bought the first plots in the township of Grand Corbin in 1812. Today it is the 7th generation represented by François DESPAGNE, who manages the estate.

Bordeaux Tradition

Ruby red color for a powerful but fruity wine, expressing perfectly its terroir

Why buy this wine?

- The quality investments led since 1996 raised the renown of the estate worldwide
- Reputation and know-how of the DESPAGNE family : Château Grand Corbin Despagne
- The wine is produced with the same care as the other wines of the DESPAGNE family
- Very good quality/price ratio
- Organic certified wine

Technical Facts

Owner: M. DESPAGNE RAPIN

Average age of the vineyard: 35 years

Soils: clay-limestons

Color: red

Grape varieties:

75% Merlot,

25% Cabernet Sauvignon

Ageing potential: 5 years

Temperature: 17°C

Food match: lamb, veal ribs cooked with mushrooms, turkey cooked with oranges, rabbit cooked in plums, chicken, poultry

Web site: www.grand-corbin-despagne.com