

Vineyard

Château Pavie Macquin is named after the grandfather of the current owners: Albert Macquin (1852-1911), who Saint-Emilion has to thank for the use of grafted plants designed to save vineyards devastated by phylloxera.

A family estate, the Pavie Macquin vineyards are in a wonderful location on the top of the Saint-Emilion plateau.

Nicolas Thienpont took up the reins in late 1994, and his son Cyrille has recently been playing an active role.

The whole art of winemaking at this exceptional cru lies in taming the terroir's natural power.

2015 Press Review

94-97/100

« A pure style, with a bright cassis aroma and a core of plum and bitter cherry notes, allied to a lightly chalky spine. Long and refined, showing lovely cut and precision. »

James Molesworth, Wine Spectator

96-97/100

« The purity of fruit and focus in this wine is so impressive. Full body, powerful and persistent. It goes on for minutes here. »

James Suckling, jamesuckling.com

93-96/100

« The 2015 Pavie Macquin is another tremendous wine from Nicolas Thienpont and his team. Inky, rich and voluptuous the 2015 is endowed with remarkable depth and plenty of underlying energy to back it all up. The flavors are dark, bold and incisive, as are the tannins. The 2015 is going to require quite a bit of time to come together, but it is impressive, that much is obvious. »

Antonio Galloni, Vinous

95-96/100

Minéral et tendu, du volume et une certaine rigueur, mais avec du fond.

Bettane et Desseauve, En Magnum
