

Château Petit Bouquey 2011

St Emilion Grand Cru

This family estate has been entirely renovated these past years under the supervision of the owner Eric BORDRON (4th generation). This passionate owner is well surrounded thanks to the advice of his oenologist Stéphane TOUTONDJI (Château Fonroque, Roquebrune etc.) The value of this wine maker is the production of modern wines in agreement with the market, while respecting the vintage and the estate. The estate produces a Saint Emilion quality as well as a “premium” quality arising from the best plots in Saint Emilion Grand Cru.

The cellar is very efficient thanks to the appropriate equipments: modern stainless steel vats that allow plot fermentations. The harvest arrives directly by gravity in the vats preventing the use of pumps that bring air to the wine.

Bordeaux Tradition

The merlot present at 87% in the wine has a major role in the final taste of the wine: the nose and the mouth are very fruity with intense red fruits but also undergrowth and spicy aromas. The wine is smooth, round and well balanced.

Why buy this wine?

- Very good value for money for a Saint Emilion Grand Cru
- Renowned oenologist Stéphane TOUTONDJI : the new wine star
