

CHATEAU REYNON

Château Reynon Rouge

Vintage 2018

Appellation

Cadillac Côtes de Bordeaux

Producer

Denis & Florence DUBOURDIEU EARL - 33410 BEGUEY

Situation & History

Château Reynon, located in Beguey in the Premières Côtes de Bordeaux appellation, was purchased in 1958 by Florence Dubourdieu's father, Jacques David; his daughter and son in law, Denis Dubourdieu, took over the vineyard in 1976. Thanks to their hard work, Château Reynon is today one of the most renown Premières Côtes de Bordeaux estate.

Soils

Deep gravelly soil layers on clayey subsoil top a perfectly well drained hill. At mid-slope the soils are clayey and calcareous and the rock protrudes in some areas. The soils are sandier at the foot of the slope.

Grape planting

18.5 ha 68 % Merlot - 14 % Petit Verdot - 18 % Cabernet Sauvignon

Blending

61 % Merlot - 25 % Cabernet - 14 % Petit Verdot

Wine making and ageing

Ripened harvest is handpicked and undergoes 20 to 25 days maceration at moderate temperature (25°C to 30°C). Ageing is performed in oak barrels a third of which is new, for 12 months.

Vintage 2018

Chateau Reynon Rouge has a deep color and subdued aromas with liquorice black-currant and smoky nuances; the flavors are velvety, elegant and powerful. They have an exceptional style that privileges the freshness of the fruit concentrated by the "noble rot", strength, balance and subtlety of the flavors.

Tasting comments

« Dark purple red with violet hue and black core. Opulent nose with ripe plums, blackberries and sweet elderberries, dark chocolate and mild spices. On the palate juicy fruit, ripe yet firm tannins, good structure and length. »

90 - Markus DEL MONEGO
MARS 2019

« Ruby. Blueberries, anise, spices, scented nose. Fresh acidity, ripe tannins, blueberries, anise, some spices, elegant texture, slight warmth in the finish.

»

« Ripe, but very pure and focused, with a delightful beam of cassis and cherry preserves. Subtle tobacco and licorice notes emerge on the finish.
