

COS D'ESTOURNEL

- A highly selective production with only 500 cases released.
- A brand new wood packaging in line with the greatest white wines standards.
- A very selective distribution through a reduced number of negociants.
- An inimitable style over the last 10 years balancing freshness, fruit and aromatic power.
- A dedicated sales team spread across strategical markets

17 Jancis Robinson Very exuberant nose. And pretty tight and grapefruity dry finish. Tight. Chalky finish. Tight and racy and ambitious.

91-93 Wine Advocate (N.Martin) I like the flow of energy here. This is an excellent Cos d'Estournel Blanc that should age with style and panache.

94-95 James Suckling A dense and pretty white with sliced apple, pear and pineapple. Full body and very fresh. Tangy and bright. Lovely energy to this.

90 Decanter (S.Spurrier) Very well-expressed 75% Sauvignon Blanc, 25% Semillon blend with zesty grapefruit acidity.

90 The Wine Cellar Insider (Jeff Leve) The wine is crisp, fresh, lively and packed with green apples, grapefruit, lemon, lime and sweet honeysuckle.

90-92 Wine Enthusiast (R.Voss) Crisp and herbal, this bright wine that has touches of ginger, as well as more tropical fruits. It is a very fine wine, fresh while rich.

90-92 Antonio Galloni The 2015 Cos d'Estournel Blanc is brisk and nicely focused throughout. This is a beautiful, classy wine endowed with lovely energy and overall tension.

COS D'ESTOURNEL

17 Jancis Robinson Ch Cos d'Estournel Blanc is an intriguing (though alas not underpriced) wine, made from Sauvignon Blanc topgrafted in 2004 on to underperforming Cabernet Sauvignon vines in the northern Médoc where their Goulée red AOC Médoc is grown. 75% Sauvignon Blanc, 25% Sémillon. 15% new oak. Pale greenish straw. Very exuberant nose. And pretty tight and grapefruity dry finish. Tight. Chalky finish. Tight and racy and ambitious.

91-93 Wine Advocate (N.Martin) It has a charming bouquet with lime flower, apricot blossom and just a touch of blood orange. There is a sprightliness to this wine. The palate is crisp and fresh with a fine bead of acidity, plenty of tension here and perhaps more precision than previous vintages that I have tasted since its debut. I like the flow of energy here. This is an excellent Cos d'Estournel Blanc that should age with style and panache.

94-95 James Suckling A dense and pretty white with sliced apple, pear and pineapple. Full body and very fresh. Tangy and bright. Lovely energy to this.

90 Decanter (S.Spurrier) Very well-expressed 75% Sauvignon Blanc, 25% Semillon blend with zesty grapefruit acidity.

90 The Wine Cellar Insider (Jeff Leve) From 75% Sauvignon Blanc, and 25% Semillon, the wine is crisp, fresh, lively and packed with green apples, grapefruit, lemon, lime and sweet honeysuckle.

90-92 Wine Enthusiast (R.Voss) Crisp and herbal, this bright wine that has touches of ginger, as well as more tropical fruits. It is a very fine wine, fresh while rich.

90-92 Antonio Galloni The 2015 Cos d'Estournel Blanc is brisk and nicely focused throughout. This is a beautiful, classy wine endowed with lovely energy and overall tension. In this vintage, the emphasis seems to have been on maintaining freshness, which comes through in the wine's vivacity. Green orchard fruit, sage and mint add the closing shades of nuance.
