The 2023 Haut-Bergey is bold and dynamic from the very first taste. Strong floral and savory accents lend a distinctive flair to this superexpressive Pessac-Léognan. The strong presence of Cabernet Franc comes through loud and clear. There's terrific purity to the fruit and fine balance to wrap it all together. Rose petal, sage, mint and crushed red berry fruit linger. It's one of the most intriguing wines of the year. Aging is in amphora, foudre, cement egg and tank.

Haut- Bergey is one of the major sleepers of 2023. Tasted three times.

JEB DUNNUCK

Coming from vines located between Malartic and Chevalier, the 2023 Château Haut-Bergey has beautiful red fruits, dried herbs, spicy, and loamy earth notes in its medium-bodied, nicely textured, balanced profile. It has some firmer tannins on the finish, but I suspect those will resolve nicely over the course of its élevage. Tasted twice with consistent notes.

Un et lumineux accessible de myrtille croquante et de framboises sucrées avec une note plus poudrée de racine d'iris tout aussi aérien en bouche délicieux vivant le vin est d'une fraîcheur délicate tout en finesse et en élégance même les tanins supplient à cette exquise politesse
