Jane Anson – DECANTER (UK) – 93/100

"[...] I love the purity of the fruits, and the real chalkiness to the tannins on the finish. Clear density but one that is being uplifted by a cushion of air. This is elegant and sappy with cool blue fruits and precisely placed tannins on display. A brilliant wine for understanding terroir impact. [...] This wine is now from newly-purchased plots that are entirely Asteries limestone, plus a few plots of Troplong that are also pure limestone (as opposed to the clay cover that is found on much of the property)."

Antonio Galloni – VINOUS (USA) – 90-92/100

"The 2019 Mondot is racy and voluptuous to the core. Sweet red cherry, plum, spice, blood orange and floral notes give the 2019 lovely brightness to play off the radiant fruit. Medium in body and perfumed, with plenty of textural richness, Mondot is a gorgeous second wine. The 2019 Mondot is 100% Merlot from soils on limestone from the former Clos La Barde, which Troplong Mondot acquired in 2018. Aging is in neutral oak."

Lisa Perrotti-Brown – THE WINE ADVOCATE (USA) – 90-92/100

"Mondot is 100% Merlot, coming this year from an entirely different set of blocks on the Troplong Mondot estate than the grand vin, consisting largely of limestone. So, essentially, it is not a second wine, in that it does not use any declassified fruit this year. With its own vineyard, per se, its own distinct personality really shines through this year. Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2019 Mondot drifts effortlessly out of the glass with notes of fresh red and black plums, mulberries and stewed cherries with touches of rose hip tea, cinnamon toast and dusty soil. The medium to full-bodied palate has a racy backbone of freshness lifting the perfumed red and black fruits in the mouth, with plush tannins accented by a compelling bit of chewiness, finishing long and spicy."

Jeb Dunnuck – Jebdunnuck.com (USA) – 91-93/100

"Coming from the limestone portion of the vineyard and all Merlot, the 2019 Mondot By Troplong Mondot has a juicy, lively bouquet of black cherries, spring flowers, chocolate, and classic limestone-like minerality. Medium to full-bodied, with a seamless, elegant texture, no hard edges, the freshness of the vintage, and a great finish, it's a beautiful wine from the team at Troplong Mondot."

Yohan Castaing – ANTHOCYANES, GAULT ET MILLAU, LES ECHOS (France) – 92-94/100

"[...] Superbe acidité, de très beaux amers avec l'acidité calcaire qui pousse l'ensemble pour lui apporter une verticalité et une allonge remarquable. Magnifique second vin sur des rails, très linéaire avec des tanins parfaitement intégrés. Aérien en finale et dans l'épure comparé à 2018."
