

TECHNICAL SHEET VINTAGE 2015

The Bordeaux region enjoyed a very nice summer in 2015 and, in Margaux, we were particularly spoiled with water that came, both at the right time and in the right quantity, contributing to the perfect ripening of the grapes.

On September 21st the grapes were superb when the Merlot harvest began. The harvest took place in fine sunshine which allowed us to wait for the perfect ripeness of the Cabernet Sauvignon grapes, the last plots of which were picked on October 9th.

The sky gave us another superb vintage in 5, in the line of 45, 55, 75, 85, 95, 2005.

In 2015 ORIGINE is like DESMIRAIL, with a very nice tannic structure that the beautiful proportion of Merlot contributes to rounding off.
